Before and During Use

- The SM team will check that the performers are not allergic to the fake blood
- A 'blood rehearsal' will be organised before the technical rehearsal
- Where large quantities of fake blood being used could lead to a slip hazard, the following must be observed
 - Only the amount of fake blood necessary to the action will be provided for the sequence
 - The actions will be well blocked and rehearsed
 - Any spillage/excess will be cleaned up at the earliest possible moment by the SM team
 - A mop and cloths will be readily available in the wings to clean up
